THE YOKE

A Romance of the Days When the Lord Redeemed the Children of Israel From the Bondage of Egypt

By Elizabeth Miller

Copyright, 1904, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

"Nay, O my sovereign, I do but wish to incline thine ear to me. Say first thou wilt grant me my boon. I do not ask for thy crown or thy son or for an army or treasure or anything but that which thou wouldst gladly give me because of thy just and generous heart."

"Thou hast my word, Ta-user."

"Give me ear, then," she continued. "Thou hast among thy ministers a noble genius, the Architect Mentu—"

The king broke in with a smile. "Wouldst have him for a mate?"

She shook her head till the emeralds pendent from the fillet on her forehead clinked together. Nothing could have been more childlike than the pleased smile on her face.

"Nay, nay, he would not have me," she protested. "But he hath a son."

"He had a son, but he is dead," the king answered.

"Not so! He is in prison, where thy counselor, the wicked, unfeeling, jealous, rapacious Har-hat, hath entombed him!"

Har-hat sprang forward as the king lifted an amazed and angry face.

"Back!" she cried, motioning at him with her full arm. "It is time the Har-hats overtook thee, thou ineffable knave!"

"I protest!" the fan bearer cried, losing his temper.

"Enough of this play," Menephtah said sternly. "Go on with thy tale, Ta-user. I would know the truth of this."

"Thou wilt not learn it from the princess," Har-hat exclaimed.

"Ah!" Ta-user ejaculated, a world of innocence, surprise and wounded feeling in the word.

"Thy words do not become thee, Har-hat," Menephtah said. The fan bearer

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

"Back!" she cried.

Har-hat's hands, and he ignored them, though the signet commanded him in the name of the holy one. Her voice lowered with awe and dismay at his ungenerosity. "Kenkenes is still in prison."

"Now, by the gods, Har-hat," Menephtah exclaimed angrily, "I would not have dreamed such baseness in thee!"

The fan bearer was stupefied with wrath and astonishment. Words absolutely refused to come to him. Ta-user accused him with the wide eyes of fearless righteousness. Presently she went on:

"Already hath he languished eight months in prison. His offense against the gods and against the laws of the land hath been expiated. I would have thee set him free now, O Menephtah, that he may return to his love and comfort her."

Menephtah reached for the reed pen.

"Hold!" cried Har-hat.

"Thou dost forget thyself, good Har-hat," the princess said, with dignity.

"Thou speakest with thy sovereign."

"But I will be heard!" he exclaimed violently. "Hear me, I pray thee, son of Pthah."

Menephtah removed the reed pen and waited.

"Thou didst give the maiden to me thyself!" he began precipitately. "Thy document of gift I have yet. He stole her, hid her away, committed sacrilege and abused two of my servants nigh unto death when they sought for her. Hath he any more right to her than I? Art thou assured that he hath an honorable purpose in mind for her? She is comely and well instructed in service, and I would have put her in my daughter's train, even as the Hebrew Miriam was lady in waiting to Neferari Thermuthis. If thou dost examine the records of the petitions to thee thou wilt find that I asked her expressly for household service. It is false that I had any other purpose in mind."

"As to the signet," he continued breathlessly, "there is no word upon it concerning the pillation of a triple crime! Shall we invoke the king in the blameless name of the holy one and demand forgiveness in the name of him who forgiveth no sin? Furthermore, thou didst give the writing into my hands, and in obedience to thy command I acted as I thought best. My purposes have been willfully distorted."

Menephtah frowned with perplexity. But while he pondered Ta-user drew near to him and said to him very softly:

"If his words be true, O my sovereign, one lovely Israelite is as serviceable as another. The young man loves this maiden. Doubt it not. He is a worthy offspring of that noble sire, Mentu. If he offended, he hath suffered sufficiently. Let him go, I pray thee."

"It is my word against her surmises, O Menephtah," Har-hat insisted.

The king frowned more and stroked his cheek.

"Thine anger should be abated by this time, Har-hat," he said feebly.

"His rebellion is not yet broken. I have not the slave yet," the fan bearer retorted.

"Mayhap he is ready to surrender her now."

"Not so!" the princess put in. "He hath endured eight months. If it were 800 years his silence would be the same. It is proof of my boast that he loves her. No man who would comfort his flesh alone would suffer such lengths of mortification of flesh! Let him go, my king, and give the clean souled fan bearer another Israelite for his daughter."

"Have it thy way, Ta-user. Come to me in an hour," Menephtah said as he wrote.

"Now promise that the signet shall go back to Mentu," she continued.

"As thou wilt, Ta-user," the king replied.

She caught up the roll, hesitated for a moment and then kissed his cheek deliberately and was gone.

MR. PARKER TALKS

Corporation Contributions to Campaign Funds Is His Sunday Theme.

PERKINS'S TESTIMONY

Revelations in the Inquiry Into Big Insurance Company's Affairs Dilated on by Late Candidate.

He Makes a Plea For an Aroused Public Sentiment Against Such Practices.

Esopus, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Former Chief Judge Alton B. Parker, last year the Democratic candidate for president of the United States, Sunday referred to the charges made by him in the presidential campaign last fall, that corporation funds were being used in aid of the Republican campaign. To a correspondent who called at Rosemont, Judge Parker's home, and asked him if he had anything to say in relation to the statement made by Vice President George W. Perkins of the New York Life Insurance company before the legislative committee investigating the insurance business, to the effect that President John A. McCall of that company had caused a contribution of about $50,000 to be made last year to the Republican national campaign fund, Judge Parker said:

"Yes, I believe I ought to say now that there is no political excitement to distract the public attention, that the president of the New York Life was not the only such contributor. The officers of other great life insurance companies, such as the Equitable and the Mutual, also contributed from the policy holders' funds for campaign purposes last year."

"What has been proved in the case of the New York Life will undoubtedly be proved in the other cases. The facts exist, and honest and able counsel, backed by an honest committee, will undoubtedly bring them out for the public good. Were there an investigation of railroad, manufacturing and other corporations it would be found that these life insurance officers were not the only corporation officers who put their hands into the treasury and took out moneys belonging to widows and orphans to help secure a partisan triumph."

"That their acts were unlawful and their purposes corrupt, goes without saying. They intended to have the money used as it was in corrupting the electorate. Perkins makes the point that Mr. John A. McCall, president of the New York Life, is a Democrat. Apparently he would have the public assume that when Mr. McCall unlawfully and wrongfully contributed these funds—the company's share, probably, as a member of the underwriting syndicate—it was evidence of political virtue, rather than misconduct."

"The truth about it is, and I say it without feeling, but emphatically, that men like McCall have no political convictions that stand in the way of their personal advantage. Such men desire the triumph of that party which will better serve their personal financial interests and will—for contributions, past, present and future—continue to protect those interests by lenient legislation and by pretense at execution of law which shall be tenderly blind to all their offenses. That party they espouse in the board room, and contribute to it of the moneys they hold in trust, and occasionally, a little of their own. The underlying principles which divide the great mass of the people into parties have no effect on such men. Their one inquiry is, will the party organization in its hour of triumph remember our generosity and respond to our demands? Of course the organization does remember it, for it expects a similar contribution next time. And the expectation is not in vain. Last year was not the first time such contributions had been made before in national, state and municipal elections."

"The officers responsible for these raids on the treasuries of corporations have received their reward in unfettered management of life insurance corporations; in unembarrassed trusts—condemned by both common and statute law; in refusal to punish criminally the officers of railroad and other corporations violating the laws; and in statutory permission to manufacturing corporations to levy tribute on the people."

"There can be no hope of checking the unlawful aggressions of officers of great corporations so long as they may thus form a quasi-partnership with the organization of the dominant political party. For in the hour when the administrative official seeks to punish the offender he is reminded by the head of the organization of the magnitude of the contributions of the corporations."

"There is, however, something worse, if possible, than the escape of such offenders from justice. It is the gradual demoralization of voters and the dulling of the public conscience caused by the efforts to make these vast sums of money procure the ballots they were intended to procure, corruptly and otherwise."

"It is not my purpose to claim that the Democratic party subjected to the temptation which has overcome the other party during the last few years, would have acted differently. Mere party advantage should not be sought from the disclosures made in this investigation. But the facts should be diligently sought, that the people may become so aroused that they will insist upon legislation making it a criminal offense for officers to contribute corporate funds for political purposes and depriving the apparently successful candidates of their offices."

"Efforts in that direction have been making in different states since November last, and particularly in this state. But the Republican organization would not consent to it, so the legislature defeated the bills. And the organization never will consent until an aroused public sentiment shall threaten legislators with political oblivion who fail to enact effective laws on the subject."

RESTITUTION

May Be Demanded in the Case of That Contribution.

Lakeville, Conn., Sept. 18.—District Attorney Jerome, who will return to New York today, has signified his intention of attending the Wednesday session of the Armstrong insurance committee, at which George W. Perkins will resume his testimony. On the subject of the recent testimony by Mr. Perkins before the Armstrong committee, he said: "I am not going to conjecture whether a crime has been committed or not in the matter of a campaign contribution by an insurance company. I have not seen the official record. Civil suits for restitution may of course be brought by the attorney general or an interested party, but a criminal prosecution would scarcely depend upon the question of the intent with which the act was committed."

"Will you take any steps in the direction of criminal prosecution?" Mr. Jerome was asked.

"I shall take the testimony, of course," he replied, "and if that shows that any crime has been committed, I shall certainly prosecute. That goes without saying."

Murderer Slain by Mob.

Honeah, S. C., Sept. 18.—About three miles below here in Abbeville county Samuel and Jim Moore, two white men, got into a difficulty with Allen Pendleton and another negro last evening. A fight followed in which Jim Moore was cut and killed by Pendleton. Pendleton escaped and was captured by a crowd about half a mile below here. He was carried back to the scene of the killing and shot by about a dozen men.

New York, Sept. 18.—The body of the young woman found just off Pelham road in the Bronx Saturday has been identified as that of Augusta Pfeiffer, twenty-two years old, whose home was in Pelham Road, only a few hundred yards from the spot from where her body lay. Marks on the body revealed that she had been assaulted and murdered.

CROSSED THE LINE

American Fishing Vessel Riddled With Shells From Canadian Cruiser.

TOO MUCH POACHING

It Has Become Quite the Common Practice For the Erie Fleet to Fish in Forbidden Shoals.

Canadian Cruiser Appears on the Scene and Nearly Blows One Vessel Out of Water.

Erie, Pa., Sept. 18.—The fourth of the fish-tug incidents of the last week took place in mid-lake Erie Sunday when the Canadian cruiser Vigilant riddled the big steamer tug Harry G. Barnhurst, with small shells from the rifle on the patrol boat. Captain Nick Fasel of the tug admitted after he escaped that the Vigilant could have sent her to the bottom if Captain Dunn had so desired. They ran more than eight miles under full head of steam before they crossed the boundary line and escaped from the Canadians.

More than thirty shots struck the vessel, and of these fifteen of the small shells landed with telling effect on the upper parts, so that the boat careened to one side with the mass of wreckage when she came into port. Having been used formerly for a pleasure steamer, the Barnhurst is of large size and well fitted with steam equipment. The fireman, Magnus Johnson, fainted in the hole from over exertion in keeping the steamer ahead. He was reported killed, but revived after reaching shore. Two fishermen were cut in the face by splinters shot away by the bullets.

The Barnhurst, according to Captain Fasel, was about five miles over the line drawing nets when the Vigilant appeared. The other Erie tugs, Alma, Valiant and Boyd, were closer to the line and ran away when the chase started. Captain Dunn ordered the Barnhurst to stop, but instead of doing so Captain Fasel put on full steam and started for the line. It has become quite the custom for the Erie fishermen to cross the line regardless of strict orders from the companies employing them and having exciting brushes with the Vigilant. They never think of surrender when there is a chance to run away. The Barnhurst lost a large quantity of nets.

Immigration Officers Promptly Deport Romaine Daurignac.

New York, Sept. 18.—Romaine Daurignac, brother of Mme. Therese Humbert, now serving a sentence in France on swindling charges in connection with the Crawford estate, was ordered deported Sunday by the board of inquiry of the immigration department, after a hearing on Ellis Island. Daurignac arrived in New York Saturday on a French line steamer, and in an interview said he came to this country partly for the purpose of observation and travel. The law under which Daurignac was ordered sent back to France forbids the entry into the United States of a man who has served a sentence in prison for other than a political offense. Daurignac was convicted in France of irregular practices in connection with certain insurance deals. He was taken from the steamship La Touraine on the barge which took the steerage passengers to Ellis Island. At Ellis Island, in answer to questions, he gave his pedigree and made no attempt to conceal the fact that he was an ex-convict.

When, after a brief hearing, the chairman curtly remarked "Ordered deported," Daurignac shrugged his shoulders and said: "That is what I expected." He was then taken to the detention pen and will probably be sent back on the La Touraine when she sails Thursday.

TAFT LEAVES JAPAN

Secretary of War Finds No Trace of Anti-Foreign Feeling.

Yokohama, Sept. 18.—Secretary of War Taft and party sailed at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon for San Francisco on the steamer Korea, amid Japanese enthusiasm. Secretary Taft was given a reception Sunday afternoon at the American consulate by local merchants. Before sailing he said he thought that reports of the Japanese anti-peace demonstrations had been greatly exaggerated in America. He and his party had traveled all through Japan and had found no trace of any anti-foreign or anti-American feeling. While a prominent American party had been involved in a Tokio mob, he thought it was because the party happened to be caught in the mob and not because they were Americans. Other churches besides American churches had been burned. There was a special reason in each case, but no general anti-foreign feeling was responsible.

Secretary Taft said he had examined the Chinese boycott closely. The Chinese, he said, want American goods badly and, having already lost $15,000,000 by the boycott, are finding out that they are cutting off their noses to spite their faces.

Miss Alice Roosevelt will return home on the steamer Siberia.

The local situation continues quiet.

When a woman gives up it is because she has gone to the utmost limit of strength and endurance. It is a marvel how women will stagger on under the daily household burdens when the whole body is racked with pain.

For the nervous, run-down condition which so many women experience, as a result of overstrain in household cares, there is no medicine can equal Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the weak stomach by curing diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood of the system, and it nourishes the nerves, and builds up the body with sound, healthy flesh.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

Accept no substitute for the "Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for weakness, nervousness and debility.

"I want the whole world to know what Dr. Pierce's medicines have done for me," writes Mrs. Helen Hardgrove, of Bangs, Knox Co., O. "I had many of the ills of woman's life. My lungs and throat troubled me besides, and I had rheumatism. About a year ago I had to give up work I was so bad. I had heard so much about your medicine I thought I would try it. I took four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellita,' and by the time I had taken half of the first bottle I began to gain, and kept on getting better. And now I have no more of my old ailments, and an entirely cured of rheumatism. I feel like a new woman."

M. E. CONFERENCE.

Presiding Elder Baxter and Dr. Sargent Prominent Members.

The Indiana Conference will convene at Linton tomorrow and continue in session from day to day for about a week. This is the seventy-fourth annual meeting of this conference which is one of the largest, if not the largest in the United States. It is expected that about 350 preachers will attend and the total membership of the Methodist churches in this conference is about 90,000. The churches number 760 and their property is valued at $2,465,835. The amount contributed to benevolences alone last year was $17,024. The conference is composed of eight districts, of which the Seymour district is one. Bishop Henry Spellmeyer, of Cincinnati, will preside over the conference sessions. Presiding Elder Baxter and Rev. J. A. Sargent leave for Linton Tuesday morning.

Rev. J. M. Baxter, presiding elder, who retires from the active ministry at the close of this conference year, has been a resident of Seymour the past ten years and it is with much regret that the people here learn that he has decided to remove to Indianapolis. Mr. Baxter is a native of Ohio and was a soldier having served three months in the 20th and three years in the 35th Ohio, both organized at Hamilton. He entered the Indiana Conference in 1874 at Salem and ever since he has been actively and successfully engaged in the ministry. After holding various charges he was in 1889 appointed presiding elder of the New Albany district and served a full term of six years. In 1895 he became pastor of the Seymour church remaining four years when he was appointed presiding elder of the Seymour district. With this conference year he completes a full term of six years in this district and during that time he has done a great work. The churches have made progress all along the line. His work has been thoroughly appreciated and the many expressions and tokens of esteem from the churches and individual members have gladdened the heart of Mr. Baxter on his last rounds over the district. The work closes up in good shape showing a great advance during the six years. The fact that Mr. Baxter has made only two moves in the past nineteen years shows a remarkable record.

REV. J. M. BAXTER.

Mrs. Baxter and son Warren will also be greatly missed from the congregation here and the community. She has been especially helpful in work among young people. Mrs. Baxter has been a teacher of the young ladies class in the Sunday school for ten years and many regrets are expressed by the members of this class because of her departure. She has held various offices in the Epworth League and at this time is president of the W. F. M. S. She will be greatly missed by a host of friends in the city both in the church and social circles.

Rev. J. A. Sargent, who has been pastor of the First M. E. church in Seymour the past two years, has made a host of friends in this city. He is an able minister and his work has been greatly blessed. Dr. Sargent was born in Ohio near South Lebanon in 1859 he came to Indiana to secure high school advantages at Lawrenceburg. Later he entered Moores Hill College, graduating in 1880. In September that year he was admitted to the Southeast Indiana Conference. He is now closing his 36th year of the ministry. From 1871 to 1873 he was chaplain of the orphan's home at Knightstown but resigned on account of the ill health of his wife. He served Charlestown and Rushville three years each as pastor. Was pastor at Fletcher Place and Hall Place in Indianapolis and at Shelbyville. At the end of his second year at the latter place in 1888 we was appointed presiding elder of the Connersville district serving six years. His work there was very successful for during his term there were 7000 additions to the church and $390,000 was added to the church property in the district. Then after three years as pastor at Hall Place, Indianapolis, he was appointed presiding elder of the Moores Hill district where his work was very successful.

In 1903 Dr. Sargent became pastor of the Seymour church and has done a splendid work amid the peculiar circumstances of his pastorate, having made 1892 pastoral calls, received into the church 80 persons, baptized

43 and solemnized 38 marriages. He received the church with 723 members and leaves a membership of 760.

The Seymour M. E. church a few weeks ago adopted resolutions commending highly the work both of Presiding Elder Baxter and his pastor, Dr. J. A. Sargent. These resolutions are splendid testimonials of the worth and work of these two excellent christian gentlemen.

Delegates from the societies of the W. C. T. U. at Crothersville and Brownstown met this afternoon and will meet again tonight with the ladies of the Seymour W. C. T. The work of these societies has been very effective and done much good in the several localities, and since their organization into a County Union they anticipate much greater results. Mrs. Henry Goodacre W. C. T. U. organizer, of Flora Indiana, presided at the business meeting this morning and will deliver a lecture this evening. She is a strong speaker and merits a good hearing.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold, and guaranteed to cure, dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease, by W. F. Peter Drug Co., at 50c a bottle.

Circuit Court.

The second week of circuit court began today and it will likely be a very busy one. Some cases will be tried during this week. The grand jury is still in session and the report is that numerous witnesses from this city have been summoned to appear forthwith.

Get rid of them.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure bad backs;

Cure lame, weak and aching backs.

Cure every form of Kidney ills.

Lots of local endorsement to prove this.

William Zickler of Poplar street, insurance agent, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at C. W. Milhous' drug store. I suffered from pain over my hips and sometimes in the upper part of my shoulder. A very short course of the treatment with Doan's Kidney Pills banished the pain across my kidneys and up to date there has been no recurrence. I was told by my physician that the trouble was owing to uric acid in my system but since taking Doan's Kidney Pills I think I am about rid of it. They were positive in ridding me of the backache and regulating the action of the kidney secretions."

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the Great Source of the Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this country, in a recent article, has said: "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, whites, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Maids and Matrons

An Unwholesome Fad—The Unsophisticated Mother—Girls Who Can't Sew.

"Have you heard about poor Grace?"

"What, again, my dear?"

"Yes, indeed. Dr. Smartly said she had really an unusual case, and she must be operated on immediately."

"Didn't know she had anything left to remove," remarked the cynical woman, "this being the third operation she has had since she contracted the surgical craze three years ago."

"The craze?"

"Well, you can't deny that it has become almost a fad in our set. How many women do you know who have not undergone an operation for some ill, either real or imagined? Nowadays if you haven't a hospital experience to boast of you are hopelessly out of it. And do poor people enjoy that luxury? Not much. The cost is too great. They are supposed to have the same pains and aches that we have, and yet you won't find their doctors so ready to suggest surgical interference. For one thing, it doesn't bring them big fees. The sick poor woman gets a good dose of medicine and is allowed to grow strong and well and to thank her stars she isn't fashionable enough to grace the operating table, but the rich woman goes on having her living apparatus curtailed and modified, and she has no great difficulty in finding a surgeon who will operate."

I. O. O. F. SOVEREIGN LODGE

Great Meeting of Odd Fellows at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Sept. 18.—The annual communication of the sovereign lodge I. O. O. F. is in session here. Robert

ROBERT E. WRIGHT.

E. Wright of Allentown, Pa., grand sire of the sovereign lodge, opened the communication this morning.

Brazil, Ind., Sept. 18.—Harmony is all worked up over the burning of Clint Lucas, which has just been reported. Officers are working on the case and arrests are expected. Lucas while in an alleged state of intoxication, was made the victim of a brutal joke, oil or whisky being poured on him and then ignited. As the result of the injuries the man will be an invalid for life if he recovers. He does not know who did the diabolical deed, and the officers have no clue, except that they know the saloon where it took place, and they hope to find out the names of the guilty parties from the keeper of the place.

Smoking In Boston.

In the summer of 1856 a petition which demanded the enforcement by the city officials of the law against smoking on the public streets and ways was posted for signatures in the Merchants' Exchange, Boston.

Padded Kneecaps.

All persons who have to kneel much are liable to a peculiar inflammation about the knee joints. One excellent way of preventing this is to wear a padded kneecap. If made to go round the limb its shifting to right or left will not matter, and a tape fastened above and another below the knee will keep it from shifting up or down.

A Town of Fools.

Gheel, in Belgium, is a town of fools. Imbeciles are sent there as to an asylum, but instead of being shut up and deprived of the pleasures of liberty, they are allowed to enjoy themselves like reasonable beings.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of the "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidney, sinures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 2¢; regular size, 75¢. For sale by W. Peter Drug Co.

DeWitt's Kidney & Bladder Remedy

How to Get Well.

Every organ of the body is directly connected with the brain by nerves. The nerve cells in the brain generate nerve force—power—and send it to the organ through these nerves, and this nerve-force gives life and action. The organs work perfectly when there is sufficient nerve power. Lack of nerve force weakens the action of an organ and it works imperfectly—becomes sick.

Two-thirds of all sickness is thus due to weak or deranged nerves; it is therefore advisable to take Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, because it makes nerve energy.

When you cure the nerves you remove the cause, and that's the way to get well.

"Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine cured me of nervous prostration after every other effort had failed to give me relief. My trouble seemed to begin with a general loss of strength and a breaking down of the nervous system. I suffered from headache, constipation and fluttering or palpitation of the heart. My appetite failed and I was so nervous and restless that I could not sleep at night. My husband who is a druggist, brought me a bottle of Nervine. It helped me from the start, and I continued using it until I had taken six bottles. My health was completely restored."

MRS. S. M. MOREHOUSE, North Adams, Mass. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that if it fails, he will refund your money. MILES MEDICAL CO., ELKHART, IND.

GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

STATE MAY LOSE

Value of Securities Held by Mr. Sherrick Now in Question.

A CASE FOR LAWYERS

Legal Complications Have Arisen in the Matter of the Auditor of the State's Muddled Affairs.

The Bonding Company and the Attorney General Not Quite Able to Agree.

Indianapolis, Sept. 18.—Until the value of the Sherrick securities now held in the vaults of the state treasury is ascertained it cannot be said whether or not the state will lose anything through the methods of Mr. Sherrick in the capacity of auditor of state. Both Governor Hanly and Attorney General Miller are of the opinion that the state will not lose a penny, but they are cautious about declaring this for a fact.

The truth is, legal complications have arisen which make it look as if the state might become involved with the American Surety company of New York, bondsmen for Sherrick. The contention is made that in accepting the auditor's resignation Governor Hanly should have ordered Sherrick's securities turned over to the Surety company instead of to himself.

Then, too, it is contended that the state is protected only to the extent of the $100,000 bond carried by Sherrick. In this respect it is being claimed by the surety company that inasmuch as it is to be held liable for the bond, it should have all the securities and property in Sherrick's hands at the time he was accused of defalcation.

Should the surety company establish its right to the securities, the state might suffer as a loss the difference between Sherrick's bond and its shortage, which difference would amount to something over $45,000.

Attorney General Miller and Roscoe O. Hawkins, attorney for the American Surety company, had a conference at which various questions of paramount importance were discussed, and then passed over for future consideration, inasmuch as the two attorneys could not agree on just how they should be disposed of. The surety company places the value of the securities at more than $100,000, while the governor insists that half this amount is a liberal estimate. Attorney General Miller consistently declines to make an estimate, saying that he has not satisfied himself concerning the value of many of the stocks and bonds.

Another point of disagreement between the attorneys of the surety company and the state officials has to do with the J. H. Murry & Co. notes endorsed by W. S. Wickard. The surety men are inclined to the belief that the notes are worth their face value, even though a short delay may be incurred before payment on them is made. Governor Hanly, on the other hand, insists that the notes are valueless and that the name of the Murry company was forged by Wickard.

Again the attorney general withholds official opinion on the question in dispute. All he would say concerning the validity of the notes was:

"My investigation, which has not been concluded, shows that doubt exists concerning the genuineness and value of the notes signed by Wickard. In regard to the charge of forgery on the part of Mr. Wickard I have not examined into that."

LABEL SUIT IS OUT OF COURT

Judge Rules Against Simpson B. Lowe in Bedford Case.

Bedford, Ind., Sept. 18.—The libel suit brought by Simpson B. Lowe against Colonel A. C. Voris has been temporarily thrown out of court under the ruling of Judge Wilson. In his complaint Mr. Lowe alleges that Col. Voris criticized the policy of his reelection to the school board on account of the talk connecting him with the Sarah Schaefer murder case. In sustaining the defendant's demurrer the judge ruled that the words alleged to have been uttered by Mr. Voris, on which the suit was based, did not constitute libel so far as was shown in the complaint. Mr. Lowe was granted leave to amend.

Finally Made Lid Stick.

Michigan City, Ind., Sept. 18.—Governor Hanly's new police board has just obtained its first conviction for liquor law violation since the lid was put on in this county three months ago and which was the only successful prosecution out of a total of fifteen actions brought. The police board is jubilant over its success and promises other prosecutions soon.

A Double Tragedy.

Hammond, Ind., Sept. 18.—Because she jilted him to marry another man, Harry Homan, aged twenty-four, Sunday shot and killed Mrs. Charles Jaquette, a bride of three weeks, at Cedar Lake, and then committed suicide.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Sept. 18.—Carey Jones, fifty-four years old, was killed near this city while chopping down a tree. A limb struck him on the head, killing him instantly.
